- (a) it is discovered at any time that the particulars furnished by an approved small business at the time of making an application pursuant to section 4 were false in any material particular or were likely or calculated to deceive;
- (b) an approved small business interferes with or prevents an inspection or the submission of information required pursuant to section 15(3) or fails or refuses to submit audited statements of its accounts to the Registrar pursuant to section 22;
- (c) it is found that the approved small business has failed to commence operations within twelve months of the issue of a declaration as an approved small business;
- (d) it is found that the approved small business is in breach of any condition upon which the declaration was made; or
- (e) the approved small business has failed, neglected or refused to submit an annual report as required by this Act

the Minister may, by Order published in the Official Gazette revoke the declaration of approved small business status.

(2) The Minister shall by Order published in the Official Gazette revoke the declaration of approval of an approved small business where

- (a) he or she is satisfied that a small business is no longer a small business as defined in section 3; or
- (b) the Minister is notified pursuant to section 12 that the small business has ceased to operate as a small business.

(3) Where the Minister has revoked the approval in respect of a small business pursuant to subsection (1) or (2), the small business shall pay to

- (a) the Comptroller of Inland Revenue;
- (b) the Comptroller of Customs;

any sums which but for section 15 would have been payable as income tax or customs duty.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3) Cabinet may, where it is satisfied that the payment of any sums due under that subsection would cause undue hardship or that it is expedient to do so, waive the whole or part of those sums payable by the small business.

Part III
Incentives and Technical Assistance

Incentives.

14. In order to encourage the growth and development of an approved small business, the Minister may, upon application by an approved small business, recommend to Cabinet to grant the approved small business any of the following incentives
