

Migración laboral internacional - una bibliografía selectiva de publicaciones de la OIT

Esta bibliografía, publicada por la Biblioteca de la OIT, presenta un listado selectivo de libros, informes y artículos. Todos los documentos son accesibles en línea y en la Biblioteca de la OIT. Para más información consultar la base de datos de la Biblioteca de la OIT, Labordoc, <http://labordoc.ilo.org>.

The global economic crisis and migrant workers

Awad, Ibrahim

Ginebra: OIT, 2009, 64p.

Analyses the actual and potential impact of the global crisis on international migrant workers through a focus on four issue areas. These are the employment and migration opportunities available to migrant workers, including changes in the demand for migrant labour and possible return to countries of origin; the volume of financial remittances sent by migrant workers to their families; situations of discrimination and xenophobia that may confront migrant workers along with their conditions of work and; the policies that both countries of destination and origin have put in place to deal with the impact of the crisis.

In search of decent work: migrant workers' rights: a manual for trade unionists

Ginebra: OIT, 2008, 136p.

(también disponible en ucraniano)

Focuses on strengthening trade unions' capacity to participate in the shaping of migration policies, promote sound labour migration practices and reach out to migrant workers.

Handbook on establishing effective labour migration policies: Mediterranean edition

Ginebra: OIT; OSCE; IOM, 2007, 262p.

(también disponible en árabe)

Analyses effective labour migration policies and practices. Emphasizes that successful management of labour migration requires a deliberate approach to address the range of policy issues and choices involved.

International labour migration and development: the ILO perspective: international migration brief

Ginebra: OIT, 2007, 10p.

Presents the ILO's perspective on the relationship between international labour migration and development. Reviews the importance of migrant workers to development in destination and origin countries and outlines the need for protecting migrant workers from abuse and providing them with rights.

Rights, labour migration and development: the ILO approach: international migration brief

Ginebra: OIT, 2007, 9p.

Briefly outlines the basic normative framework for the protection of the rights of migrant workers, which includes the 1998 ILO Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work and its follow-up, ILO Conventions specifically pertaining to migrant workers, and other

Conventions which are particularly important to the situation of workers employed in countries other than their own.

Handbook on establishing effective labour migration policies in countries of origin and destination

Vienna: OSCE; IOM; OIT, 2006, 248p.

(también disponible en ruso)

Aims to assist states in their efforts to develop new policy approaches, solutions and practical measures for better management of labour migration in countries of origin and of destination. Analyses effective policies and practices and draws on examples from OSCE participating States as well as other countries that have experience in this field.

Marco multilateral de la OIT para las migraciones laborales: principios y directrices no vinculantes para un enfoque de las migraciones laborales basado en los derechos, adoptado por la Reunión tripartita de expertos sobre el Marco multilateral de la OIT para las migraciones laborales, Ginebra, 31 de octubre - 2 de noviembre de 2005

Ginebra: OIT, 2006, 84p.

(también disponible en francés, inglés, ruso, árabe y chino)

Comprises non-binding principles and guidelines for labour migration, drawn from principles contained in relevant international instruments and international and regional policy guidelines, including the International Agenda for Migration Management.

Datos sobre migración laboral

Ginebra: OIT, 2006, 2p.

(también disponible en francés e inglés)

ILO fact sheet on Labour Migration.

En busca de un compromiso equitativo para los trabajadores migrantes en la economía globalizada

Ginebra: OIT, 2004, 210p.

(también disponible en francés e inglés)

Explores patterns of migration in the context of a globalizing world and examines the impact of migration on countries of origin and destination countries. Investigates the conditions of work and treatment of migrant workers and assesses international regulations and ILO activities. Discusses the available opportunities for improving the management of migration. Includes a summary of replies to the ILO International Labour Migration Survey 2003.

Resolución relativa a un compromiso equitativo para los trabajadores migrantes en la economía globalizada

Ginebra: OIT, 2004, 9p.

(también disponible en francés e inglés)

Resolution adopted at the 92nd Session of the International Labour Conference, Ginebra, May-June 2004.

International migration, racism, discrimination and xenophobia

Ginebra: OIT et al., 2001, 29p.

Discusses the specific character of discrimination against migrants, refugees and other non-nationals in order to better determine and implement effective remedies.