

Promoting Sustainable Enterprises in India (PSEI)

Enabling MSMEs to sustainably and responsibly integrate into supply chain, and create more and better quality jobs.

AT A GLANCE

200 Women

Started business and generated 1500 jobs

Exhibition of food products by women trained to start business

1000 Workers

Accessed social security schemes

Country Director, KOICA India handing e-shram social security card to a MSME worker

170 MSMEs

Report improvement in productivity and working conditions

On-site coaching of supervisors and workers by a shrimp processing factory to improve productivity

1200 Women

Improved earnings by 15%

A worker in a garment factory championing issues of women workers

8 Institutions

Strengthened capacity in effective design and delivery of MSME programmes

Institute of Entrepreneurship Development, Odisha commits SIYB training of 1600 youths

4 Policy frameworks

Developed and implementation supported

Release of Odisha Food Processing Policy

50 Policy makers and associates

Enhanced knowledge on evidence-based policy formulation and global best practises, in particular, Korea

Indian delegation visiting a garment manufacturing facility during study tour to Republic of Korea