XXII Meeting of European Labour Court Judges
15-16 September 2014
Dublin, Ireland

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the XXII European Labour Court Judges Meeting will be held on 15-16 September 2014 at the Labour Court of Ireland in Dublin.

In 2014, we will celebrate 30 years of the Network of European Labour Court Judges.

The Organizing Committee of the Meeting has, as in the past, requested the International Labour Office to provide the necessary support services. I have the honour therefore to invite you on behalf of the Committee to this meeting.

The Organizing Committee members are:

- Judge Kevin Duffy, Labour Court of Ireland;
- Judge Steve Adler, former President of the National Labour Court of Israel;
- Judge Mario Eylert, Federal Labour Court of Germany;
- Judge Mercédesz Kádár, Labour Court of Hungary;
- Judge Jorma Saloheimo, President of the Labour Court of Finland;
- Judge Niels Waage, Vice-president of the Labour Court of Denmark;
- Angelika Muller, Governance and Tripartism Department, ILO.

The topics for discussion this year are the following (questionnaires will be sent to participants later):

- Review of national case law on the impact of Information Technologies (IT) on employment and industrial relations;
- Collective agreements in case of transfer of enterprise.

As before, it will be up to the participants to cover their own costs. The details concerning accommodation in Dublin will follow.

We sincerely hope that it will be possible for you to attend. Kindly confirm your participation 23 May 2013 by replying directly to Ms. Carmen Bernales-Guibo (bernales@ilo.org), who assists Ms. Angelika Muller (mullera@ilo.org) in coordinating this meeting. Please also provide your current address, telephone numbers and e-mail address.

Yours sincerely,

Moussa Oumarou,
Director,
Governance and Tripartism
Department
