

▶ Evaluation topical updates

November 2020 (updated Nov. 2022)

The rapid pace at which conditions may change on the ground for evaluation require flexibility and agility. During periods of crises, such as pandemics, natural disasters and serious economic hardships, evaluation remains even more relevant but may require adjustments in procedures. For this reason, EVAL created “evaluation topical updates” for real-time updates on adapted guidance and resources for evaluation managers, project officers and donors.

Evaluation & the COVID-19 pandemic

- ▶ Implications of COVID-19 on evaluations in the ILO: Practical tips on adapting to the situation
- ▶ Protocol on collecting evaluative evidence on the ILO's COVID-19 response measures through project and programme evaluations
- ▶ ILO's response to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on workers and enterprises: What evaluative lessons can be drawn from the ILO's past response to an economic and financial crisis?
- ▶ ILO's response to the impact of COVID-19 on the world of work: Evaluative lessons on how to build a better future of work after the pandemic: A synthesis review of evaluative evidence
- ▶ Evaluative lessons on how to build a better future of work after the pandemic - i-eval IN-FOCUS internal learning series