Reader's note

The Information document on ratifications and standards-related activities (Report III (Part 2)) provides an overview of developments in international labour standards during 2013. It supplements the information contained in the report of the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (Report III) (Part 1A). Part I provides general information on recent developments concerning international labour standards, constitutional and other procedures in relation to the supervision of standards, and technical assistance in the field of standards. Part II provides information on the ratification of individual Conventions and Protocols in table format. Part III contains "country profiles" which bring together information on the ratification and application of Conventions and on the submission of instruments adopted by the International Labour Conference to the competent authorities in a table format by country.

Part I. General information on international labour standards

Standards policy

- A. Improvements to standards-related activities
- 1. Discussions on the standards strategy in the Governing Body
  - 1. The ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, 2008, reaffirms that the Organization must promote its standard-setting policy as a cornerstone of its activities by enhancing its relevance to the world of work, and ensure the role of standards as a useful means of achieving the constitutional objectives of the Organization.
  - 2. In November 2010, the Governing Body discussed the components of the definition of the standards policy. At the time, there was consensus that ILO standards policy involves the following components:
  - the determination of the best means for keeping the body of standards up to date; the identification of standards in need of revision or other action:
  - the identification of up-to-date standards, and their promotion;
  - the determination of new subjects and approaches for standard setting; and
  - □ the preparation and adoption of standards.
  - 3. In the overarching framework provided by the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, 2008, and the ILO's standards policy in particular, the Governing Body agreed to the establishment of a standards review mechanism (SRM) at its 312th Session (November 2011). The purpose of the SRM is to ensure that the ILO has a clearly defined, robust and up-to-date body of international labour standards in order to reinvigorate and enhance the visibility and impact of ILO standards. The Governing Body invited further tripartite consultations on the modalities of the SRM and noted at its 313th Session (March 2012) the need to continue the consultations on the matter.
  - 4. The promotion of the ILO standards policy as a core function of the Organization, including the establishment and implementation of an SRM, received further impetus in the context of the report submitted by the Director-General at the 102nd Session (2013) of the Conference. This report proposed seven ideas for ILO centenary initiatives, including the standards initiative "to consolidate tripartite consensus on an authoritative supervisory system and to enhance the relevance of international labour standards through a standards review mechanism". 1

The Governing Body will follow-up on these discussions.

2. Enhanced access to the standards system and broader visibility

- Following the successful launch in 2012 of the new information system on international labour standards, NORMLEX, which has been warmly welcomed by the constituents, the Office moved to the next step with the implementation of an online reporting system. In order to move forward with this system, five member States had volunteered to participate in the pilot phase and used the system for the 2012 reporting exercise. Overall, the feedback from the users was positive and has enabled the Office to better gauge what future enhancements to the system were necessary. The online reporting system was extended to 11 more member States for the 2013 reporting exercise. It will be extended further in 2014.
- As far as the NATLEX database is concerned, in total, between 1 January and 1 December 2013, more than 3,000 new entries were made, an average of around 250 per month. On average, each month almost 900,000 NATLEX search results are viewed externally by the public, and about 3,300 search results internally within the ILO. NATLEX is still the most complete publicly accessible database online concerning labour and employment related national legislation of all of the ILO member States with a scope that covers all work areas of the ILO. Just as NORMLEX for international labour standards, NATLEX will have an essential role in the upcoming ILO central gateway as the repository for legislative and policy information upon which the gateway will be partly based.

Instrument of Amendment to the ILO Constitution of 1997 3.

The 1997 Instrument of Amendment to the ILO Constitution, the purpose of which is to enable the International Labour Conference (ILC) to abrogate Conventions that have become obsolete, will enter into force once it has been ratified or accepted by twothirds of the Members of the Organization (124/185). A campaign for ratification has been launched with a view to promoting the entry into force of this Instrument of Amendment, which has to date received 122 ratifications or acceptances. The last ratification, that of South Sudan, was registered on 30 November 2012. <sup>2</sup>

B. Agenda of future sessions of the International Labour Conference

- The agenda of the Conference is composed of two parts consisting, respectively, of standing items and ad hoc items. The following standing items are required to be included by the Governing Body on the Conference agenda each year:
- reports of the Chairperson of the Governing Body and of the Director-General;
- programme and budget and other questions; and
- information and reports on the application of Conventions and Recommendations.

- 10. In addition, it has become the practice to normally include on the Conference agenda three additional ad hoc items to be examined, with a view to a general discussion or to standard setting. Following the adoption of the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, 2008, which has introduced a scheme of recurrent discussions by the Conference on the strategic objectives of the Organization, <sup>3</sup> the Governing Body decided that recurrent discussions would follow a seven-year cycle. The recurrent discussions have, as a result, constituted one of the ad hoc items on the Conference agenda for each session comprised within the seven-year cycle according to the following sequence: employment (first recurrent discussion, 2010); social protection (social security) (first recurrent discussion, 2011); fundamental principles and rights at work (first recurrent discussion, 2012); social dialogue (first recurrent discussion, 2013); employment (second recurrent discussion, 2014); social protection (labour protection) (second recurrent discussion, 2015); and fundamental principles and rights at work (second recurrent discussion, 2016). General Surveys of the Committee of Experts and the related discussion and outcome of the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards constitute an important source of information of these recurrent discussions.
- 11. When the Governing Body met at its 317th Session (March 2013), the agenda of the 103rd Session (2014) included one ad hoc item: the second recurrent discussion on the strategic objective of employment. The Governing Body decided to complete the agenda of the 103rd Session (2014) of the Conference by selecting two items: (i) supplementing the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), to address implementation gaps to advance prevention, protection and compensation measures, to effectively achieve the elimination of forced labour (standard setting, single discussion); (ii) facilitating transitions from the informal to the formal economy (standard setting, double discussion).
- 12. The item on "facilitating transitions from the informal to the formal economy" was also included by the Governing Body on the agenda of the 104th Session (2015) of the Conference, for a second discussion. As indicated above, this agenda already included the recurrent discussion on the strategic objective of social protection (labour protection) under the recurrent discussion cycle.
- 13. At its 319th Session (October 2013), the Governing Body decided to complete the agenda of the 104th Session (2015) of the Conference, by selecting the item "small and medium-sized enterprises and decent and productive employment creation" with a view to a general discussion. It also selected the item "decent work in global supply chains" with a view to a general discussion for the 105th Session (2016) of the Conference. <sup>4</sup> As indicated above, the agenda for this session already included the recurrent discussion on the strategic objective of fundamental principles and rights at work under the recurrent discussion cycle. The Governing Body decided to postpone a discussion on any further item for the 105th Session (2016) of the Conference to its 320th Session (March 2014).

&lt;sup>4</sup> This decision was taken following the conclusions adopted by the Conference concerning the recurrent discussion on social dialogue at its 102nd Session (June 2013). Paragraph 12(16) of these conclusions provided that the ILO should "consider including, through its Governing Body, an item for discussion on decent work in global supply chains at an International Labour Conference, not later than 2016, in light of support expressed during this recurrent discussion"; see Provisional Record No. 11, International Labour Conference, 102nd Session, Geneva, June 2013

Constitutional and other procedures

- A. Measures taken under article 33 of the ILO Constitution: The question of the observance by Myanmar of the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29)
  - 14. Following a complaint filed pursuant to article 26 of the Constitution alleging the non-observance by Myanmar of the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), the Governing Body decided to establish a Commission of Inquiry. The Commission concluded, in its report published in 1998, that the obligation under Article 1, paragraph 1, of the Convention to suppress the use of forced or compulsory labour was being violated in Myanmar both in national legislation and in practice in a widespread and systematic manner, and it made a series of recommendations.
  - 15. As the Government failed to take the necessary steps to implement the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry, the ILC adopted in June 1999 a resolution on the widespread use of forced labour, according to which Myanmar should cease to benefit from any technical cooperation or assistance from the ILO, except for the purpose of direct assistance to implement immediately the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry. The following year, the ILC adopted a new resolution, under article 33 of the Constitution, inviting the Organization's constituents to review their relations with Myanmar and take appropriate measures to ensure that Myanmar cannot take advantage of such relations to perpetuate or extend the system of forced or compulsory labour referred to by the Commission of Inquiry.
  - 16. In May 2001, the Government agreed to receive a high-level team appointed to assess, with full independence and freedom of movement, the realities of the forced labour situation and also accepted the appointment of an ILO Liaison Officer in Myanmar, whose role covers all activities relevant to ensuring the prompt and effective elimination of forced labour. The post of Liaison Officer has been in existence since October 2002.
  - 17. As the agreement concluded in May 2003 between the Government and the ILO on a joint plan of action on the elimination of forced labour practices in Myanmar was not implemented, the Governing Body (November 2004) asked that a very high-level mission visit the country in February 2005. The mission considered that the conditions were not conducive to the effective discharge of its mandate and submitted to the authorities, before leaving the country, an aide-memoire outlining the measures that should be taken to improve the situation. In October 2005, the authorities indicated that Myanmar did not wish to engage in any debate on the measures recommended by the very high-level mission and the joint plan of action. In November 2005, many members of the Governing Body expressed their deep concern about the deteriorating situation in Myanmar and asked for the ILC to review the measures adopted, under article 33 of the Constitution, in the ILC resolution of 2000.
  - 18. Accordingly, in June 2006 the ILC examined various options aimed at ensuring compliance with the Convention, including the possibility of the ILO seeking an advisory opinion from the International Court of Justice.

- 19. On 26 February 2007, the ILO and the Government of Myanmar signed a Supplementary Understanding to establish a complaints mechanism, aimed at giving victims of forced labour the opportunity to channel their complaints through the services of the Liaison Officer to the competent authorities with a view to seeking redress. Both the Governing Body and the ILC, while welcoming the implementation of this mechanism, subsequently emphasized that it was vital to ensure that the mechanism functioned efficiently and that the Liaison Officer had the necessary staff to discharge adequately the responsibilities that the position entailed.
- 20. In March and November 2009, the Governing Body acknowledged a certain degree of cooperation from the Government to make the complaints mechanism function. However, it called upon the Government to strengthen the capacity of the ILO so that complaints could be dealt with throughout the country and to immediately release all persons currently detained because of their association with the complaints mechanism. In June 2010, the ILC considered that the steps taken by the Government were totally inadequate and again emphasized the need for the Government to work proactively towards the full implementation of the 1998 recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry.
- 21. In November 2010, the Governing Body called on the new Parliament to proceed without delay to bring the legislation into line with the Convention and underlined the need to move towards sustaining an environment free from harassment or fear of retribution. The Governing Body welcomed the release of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and urged that other persons associated with the submission of complaints would be similarly given their liberty as soon as possible.
- 22. In November 2011, the Governing Body welcomed the positive developments in Myanmar, in particular the fact that legislation, prohibiting the use of forced labour in all its forms and repealing both the Village and Towns Acts of 1907, was before Parliament but remained concerned that serious problems in the use of forced labour persisted. It urged the Government to adopt the legislation and again stressed the critical importance of a comprehensive proactive approach encompassing not only the continuation of awareness-raising activities and the management of the complaints mechanism but also the effective prosecution of forced labour perpetrators, military and civilians, under the Penal Code.
- 23. In March 2012, the Governing Body welcomed the developments in Myanmar including: the adoption of the Ward or Village Tract Administration Act in February 2012, which makes the use of forced labour a criminal offence punishable with sanctions; the repeal of the Village and Towns Acts of 1907, and the prosecution of some offenders; the declaration of intent by the Government to develop a joint strategy with the ILO for the full elimination of all forms of forced labour by 2015; the awareness-raising activities for the civilian and military authorities; and the further releases of labour activists from detention. While welcoming these major steps towards meeting the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry, the Governing Body observed that the strict application of the new law and the prosecution and punishment of offenders are critical to achieving this objective.
- 24. Upon request by the Governing Body, a high-level tripartite mission visited Myanmar in May 2012, which concluded that there is sufficient political will and technical need in Myanmar to justify a substantially increased and diversified engagement by the ILO and that the legislative changes introduced by the new Government appear to respond appropriately to the Commission of Inquiry's first recommendation on amending the legislation.

- 25. On the basis of this report in June 2012, the ILC reviewed the measures adopted in 1999 and 2000 to secure compliance by Myanmar with the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry. The ILC adopted a resolution which effectively removed the restrictions on ILO cooperation with the Government of Myanmar that had been set by the ILC resolution in 1999. Under the terms of this resolution, the ILC decided, in particular: (i) to allow the Government of Myanmar once again to participate in ILO meetings, symposia and seminars in the same way as any other Member, with social partners from Myanmar receiving the same treatment; (ii) to suspend for one year the recommendation contained in paragraph 1(b) of the 2000 resolution, which called on the Organization's constituents to review their relations with Myanmar and take appropriate measures to ensure that these relations could not be taken advantage of to perpetuate or extend the system of forced labour referred to by the Commission of Inquiry; and (iii) to facilitate the enlarged scope of the activities of the ILO in Myanmar through appropriate arrangements.
- 26. In November 2012, the Governing Body noted the Government's commitment to the implementation of the action plan for the elimination of forced labour and noted a range of measures undertaken by the Government in this respect. At the request of the Governing Body, the Conference once again in June 2013 examined the measures adopted previously under article 33 of the Constitution with a view to securing compliance by Myanmar with the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry. The Conference had before it the information contained in the reports submitted by the Liaison Officer to the Governing Body in November 2012 and March 2013, as well as a paper prepared by the Office reviewing the situation in Myanmar and giving an overview of the technical cooperation activities undertaken by the ILO in the country. In view of the progress made in the implementation of the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry, the measures taken in the context of the action plans accompanying the strategy for the total abolition of all forms of forced labour, and the operation of the complaints mechanism established under the Supplementary Understanding, the Conference considered that maintaining the remaining measures set out in its 2000 resolution would no longer be necessary for the implementation of the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry and decided to discontinue the measures set out in paragraphs 1(a)-(b) of the resolution. It also requested the Office and the Government to continue their commitment to the application, in coordination with the social partners of Myanmar, of the 2007 Supplementary Understanding, the Memorandum of Understanding of March 2012 and the associated action plans for the elimination of all forms of forced labour by 2015, and it invited the Governing Body to review the situation in Myanmar until the elimination of forced labour.

B. Representations submitted under article 24 of the ILO Constitution

27. Representations may be filed under article 24 of the Constitution by industrial associations of employers or workers, alleging that a member State that has ratified a Convention has failed to secure within its jurisdiction the effective observance of that Convention. Once declared receivable, representations are examined by a tripartite committee established by the Governing Body. Their findings are followed up by the Committee of Experts. The table below indicates developments concerning representations in 2013.

C. Complaints submitted under article 26 of the ILO Constitution

28. Complaints may be filed under article 26 of the Constitution alleging that a member State that has ratified a Convention is not securing its effective observance. Complaints may be filed by another member State that has ratified the same Convention, a delegate to the ILC, or the Governing Body of its own capacity. The Governing Body may appoint a Commission of Inquiry to consider the complaint. Findings of the Commission of Inquiry are followed up by the Committee of Experts or the Committee on Freedom of Association.

Bahrain

- 29. A complaint was presented on 15 June 2011 by a number of Workers' delegates to the 100th Session (2011) of the ILC pursuant to article 26 of the ILO Constitution, against the Government of Bahrain alleging violations of the Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111). The issue of receivability of the complaint was before the Governing Body at its 312th Session (November 2011). On that occasion, the Officers of the Governing Body submitted a report to the latter, which took note of the proposal of the Government of Bahrain to establish a tripartite committee, which would have access to all relevant documents and meet weekly to address, with the assistance of independent legal advice (ILO) if requested by the Government or the Worker or Employer representatives, the issue of dismissals and reinstatements referred to in the complaint, and would provide progress reports to the Director-General. The Governing Body, on the recommendation of its Officers, invited the Director-General to provide any requested legal guidance or support to the Government of Bahrain or the Worker or Employer representatives in this process, and to report on the situation to the Governing Body.
- 30. In view of the Governing Body decision, and in response to a request received by the General Federation of Bahrain Trade Unions (GFBTU) to the ILO Director-General, dated 3 February 2012, the Director-General sent a mission to Bahrain from 29 February to 11 March 2012. In the course of the mission, on 11 March 2012, the tripartite constituents signed a tripartite agreement concerning the issues raised in the complaint. At its 313th Session (March 2012), the Governing Body further suspended consideration of the issue of receivability of the complaint pending completion and submission of further reports from the Government and the Director-General to the Governing Body at its 316th Session (November 2012). The Government was requested to continue to provide reports on the effective implementation of the tripartite agreement, and the Director-General was requested to take the necessary measures to provide all the technical assistance required by the tripartite constituents to ensure the effective implementation of the tripartite agreement.

31. At the request of the GFBTU, a further mission of the Office took place from 7 to 10 October 2012. At its 316th Session (November 2012), the Governing Body, on the recommendation of its Officers, requested a further report from the Government and the Office on the progress made in the effective implementation of the tripartite agreement. Subsequently, at its 317th Session (March 2013), the Governing Body, on the recommendation of its Officers: deferred all consideration of the complaint; and invited the Office to visit the country in order to obtain relevant information and to report to the Governing Body at its 319th Session (October 2013). A new mission took place on 7-8 October 2013. Although the ILO had been informed that the Government, the GFBTU and the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI) intended to sign a Supplementary Tripartite Agreement, no agreement was finally reached. At its 319th Session (October 2013), the Governing Body, on the recommendation of its Officers: urged the Government, the GFBTU and the BCCI to pursue their efforts to arrive at an agreement on the basis of the Supplementary Tripartite Agreement; requested the Government to guarantee the safety and security of GFBTU leaders; invited the Office to provide all the technical assistance required by the parties, if requested by the Government or the GFBTU or the BCCI; and placed the item on the agenda of its 320th Session (March 2014) at which time a decision would have to be taken on the receivability of the complaint.

Belarus

- 32. It will be recalled that at its 288th Session (November 2003), the Governing Body established a Commission of Inquiry to examine the observance by the Government of Belarus of the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and the Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98). The Governing Body noted the report of the Commission of Inquiry in November 2004 and entrusted the Committee on Freedom of Association with the responsibility of supervising and following up the Committee's recommendations, as well as those made by the Committee of Experts in its periodic review of these Conventions.
- 33. At its May–June 2013 meeting, the Committee on Freedom of Association, while duly recognizing the efforts made by the Government to provide material for the Committee's consideration, nonetheless regretted that the Government submitted no information on the measures taken to implement the remaining recommendations. It expected that the Government would provide full details on the steps taken to fully implement all outstanding recommendations without further delay.
- 34. In June 2013, the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards observed with deep regret that no new information was provided by the Government nor had any tangible result been achieved in implementing the recommendations made by the Commission of Inquiry. It therefore urged the Government to intensify its efforts to bring the law and practice into full conformity with the Convention, in close cooperation with all the social partners and with the assistance of the ILO. The Conference Committee invited the Government to accept a direct contacts mission with a view to obtaining a full picture of the trade union rights situation in the country and assisting the Government in the rapid and effective implementation of all outstanding recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry. It expected that the Government would submit detailed information on proposed amendments to the legislation to the Committee of Experts at its 2013 meeting and trusted that it would be in a position to note significant progress with respect to all remaining matters. The Conference Committee decided to include its conclusions in a special paragraph of its report. The Government of Belarus has accepted the visit of a direct contacts mission in January 2014. The mission is expected to report to the Governing Body in March 2014 under the agenda item "Belarus: Follow-up given to the 2004 recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry".

Fiji

35. At its 319th Session (October 2013), the Governing Body decided that the article 26 complaint brought by some Workers' delegates to the 102nd Session (2013) of the ILC against the Government of Fiji for non-observance of the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), was receivable. Further consideration of the article 26 complaint has been deferred to the Governing Body's 320th Session in March 2014.

Guatemala

- 36. Through a statement addressed to the 101st Session of the Conference (June 2012), ten Workers' delegates filed a complaint under article 26 of the ILO Constitution against the Government of Guatemala for non-observance of Convention No. 87. At its November 2012 session, considering the complaint as receivable, the Governing Body invited the Office to obtain relevant information from the Government and employers' and workers' organizations of Guatemala, including the Memorandum of Understanding signed on 10 October 2012, and the report of the high-level mission conducted in May 2011, and to report to the Governing Body at its March 2013 session.
- 37. Following a request by the President of the Republic of Guatemala, a mission from the International Labour Standards Department (NORMES) visited the country in February–March 2013. On that occasion, the Government informed the mission that it had received a proposal from the ITUC relating to the complaint and that it had given instructions for the proposal to be discussed by the different branches of government and in the Tripartite Commission on International Affairs. In the light of this information, the Governing Body decided, after the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding, to defer the decision on the appointment of a Commission of Inquiry to its 319th Session (October 2013).
- 38. Pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding, an ILO representation was established in Guatemala at the beginning of July, and it was agreed that a high-level tripartite mission would visit Guatemala to monitor compliance with the Memorandum of Understanding. This mission visited the country from 23 to 27 September 2013. Meanwhile, during a preparatory mission in August 2013, coordinated by the Director of NORMES: (i) a cooperation agreement was signed between the Public Prosecution Service and the trade union organizations (represented by the coordinator of the Autonomous Trade Union and People's Movement of Guatemala and the coordinator of the Global Trade Unions of Guatemala), formalizing the dialogue forum between the Public Prosecution Service and the trade union organizations; (ii) a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the International Labour Standards Department of the ILO and the Office of the Human Rights Ombudsman which, among other things, provides for the establishment of a basis for cooperation and information on the followup of cases before the Committee on Freedom of Association and the organization of conferences, seminars and courses to train prosecutors and prosecution officials; and (iii) under the Tripartite Committee on International Affairs, an agreement resulted in the establishment of a committee for the handling of conflicts referred to the ILO regarding freedom of association and collective bargaining. Following the conclusions of the highlevel tripartite mission, the Government of Guatemala adopted, in consultation with the social partners of the country, a roadmap aimed at accelerating the implementation of the March 2013 Memorandum of Understanding. Taking into account the mentioned roadmap, the Governing Body decided at its 319th Session (October 2013) to defer further consideration of the article 26 complaint to its 320th Session (March 2014).

Zimbabwe

- 39. It will be recalled that at its 303rd Session (November 2008), the Governing Body established a Commission of Inquiry to examine the observance by the Government of Zimbabwe of the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and the Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98). The Governing Body noted the Commission's report in March 2010. At the same session, the Governing Body supported the Commission's proposal that the ILO pursue its assistance to the Government and social partners in relation to the implementation of the Commission's recommendations.
- In June 2013, the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards expressed the firm hope that the law and practice, including the Labour Act and the Public Service Act, would be brought fully into line with Convention No. 87 in the very near future and encouraged the Government to continue cooperating with the ILO and the social partners in this respect. The Committee requested the Government to: (i) ensure the continued training of the police and security forces with a view to ensuring the full respect of human and trade union rights; (ii) take steps for the elaboration and promulgation of clear lines of conduct for the police and security forces; and (iii) ensure the Public Order and Security Act (POSA) is applied in a manner that is in conformity with the Convention. The Committee urged the Government to provide the resources necessary for the full and rapid operationalization of the Human Rights Commission. It invited the Government to accept a high-level technical assistance mission to assess the obstacles to the rapid implementation of the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry and the full implementation of Convention No. 87, both in law and in practice. The Committee requested that this information, as well as a detailed report from the Government, be transmitted to the Committee of Experts for examination at its 2013 meeting. The Government has accepted that this mission will take place in February 2014.
- 41. At its May-June 2013 meeting, the Committee on Freedom of Association examined the measures the Government of Zimbabwe had been able to take on the recommendations made to it in Case No. 2862, which involved a complaint submitted by the Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions (ZCTU) alleging that it was prevented from holding International Women's Day and International Labour Day processions. It should be recalled that in its report, the Commission of Inquiry dealt with similar claims when it examined alleged systematic infringements of freedom of assembly and demonstration in relation to the implementation of the POSA. Noting new allegations submitted by the ZCTU regarding the obstacles it faced in organizing May Day celebrations in 2013, the Committee on Freedom of Association expected that a full review of the application of the POSA in practice would be carried out together with the social partners without further delay. At the same time, in the light of the continuing difficulties with the application of the POSA in practice, as acknowledged by the Government, the Committee urged the Government to take the necessary measures, in consultation with the social partners, in order to amend the POSA. Furthermore, the Committee expected that clear lines of conduct for the police and security forces would be elaborated and promulgated without delay and requested the Government to keep it informed in this respect. Finally, the Committee requested the Government to engage with the Office in respect of the steps aimed at ensuring that training activities on international labour standards and human rights for the law enforcement bodies continued.

D. Special procedure concerning freedom of association

42. At its last meetings (March, May–June and October 2013), the Committee on Freedom of Association had before it more than 212 cases concerning 66 countries from all parts of the world, for which it presented interim or final conclusions, or for which the examination was adjourned pending the arrival of information from governments (367th, 368th, 369th and 370th Reports). Many of these cases have been before the Committee on Freedom of Association on more than one occasion. Moreover, more than 52 new cases have been submitted to it since the last meeting of the Committee of Experts. The Committee on Freedom of Association has drawn the attention of the Committee of Experts to the legislative aspects of Cases Nos 2609 (Guatemala), 2723 (Fiji), 2737 (Indonesia), 2786 (Dominican Republic), 2843 (Ukraine), 2926 (Ecuador) and 2957 (El Salvador).

Technical assistance and cooperation

A. Follow-up missions to the conclusions adopted by the Conference at its recent sessions

Guatemala

43. In February and August 2013, two ILO technical assistance missions went to Guatemala as a follow-up to the examination of the application of Convention No. 87 by the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards in 2011 and 2013, and following the submission of a complaint under article 26 of the ILO Constitution by a group of Workers' delegates to the 101st Session of the Conference (June 2012). During the mission in August 2013, a second training workshop on international labour standards, with a special emphasis on freedom of association, collective bargaining and impunity, was held. Some 25 prosecutors and prosecution service employees took part in the event. Furthermore, the Human Rights Ombudsman signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the International Labour Standards Department of the ILO. Since its establishment in July 2013, the ILO representation in Guatemala has carried out a series of training and technical assistance activities with the different public institutions dealing with freedom of association and collective bargaining as well as with social partners. <sup>5</sup>

Panama

Pursuant to the discussion on the implementation of Convention No. 87 by Panama in the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards in 2011, the Government accepted the visit of a high-level technical assistance mission to the country from 29 January to 2 February 2012. Through the mission's good offices, the Government and social partner representatives signed a tripartite agreement to: (i) initiate dialogue regarding the comments of the supervisory bodies on the implementation of Conventions Nos 87 and 98 (to this end a tripartite committee for the harmonization of legislation was established); (ii) carry out training and awareness-raising activities on freedom of association, collective bargaining and social dialogue; and (iii) set up a tripartite committee for the rapid handling of complaints relating to freedom of association and collective bargaining. In September 2013, the NORMES Freedom of Association Branch provided assistance to the tripartite committee for the harmonization of legislation with Conventions Nos 87 and 98, and to the tripartite committee for the rapid handling of complaints relating to freedom of association and collective bargaining. A time-bound action plan was established with respect to the legislative amendments requested by the ILO supervisory bodies.

Uzbekistan

45. In June 2013, the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards examined the application of the Worst Forms of Child Labour Convention, 1999 (No. 182), by Uzbekistan, and requested the Government to accept ILO monitoring during the 2013 cotton harvest. Noting that the Government was willing to engage in broad technical cooperation with the ILO, which would include monitoring of the harvest with the International Programme on the Elimination of Child Labour (ILO–IPEC) technical assistance, the Conference Committee urged the Government to undertake, in the very near future, a round-table discussion with the ILO, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the European Commission (EC) and the representatives of national and international organizations of workers and employers. At the invitation of the Government, this round table took place in Tashkent in July 2013 with the participation of NORMES officials in headquarters and the field, as well as IPEC officials and resulted in agreement on joint monitoring pursuant to the methodology presented by IPEC during the cotton harvest of autumn 2013. This joint ILO–Uzbek monitoring took place from 11 September until 31 October 2013 in eight zones in the country, and an ILO high-level mission took place to assess the results of this monitoring on 4 November 2013. The report of this high-level mission was submitted to the Committee of Experts at its November–December 2013 session. There are ongoing discussions between the Office and the Government and the social partners on renewed technical assistance to the country, including the return of ILO–IPEC to the country and the development of a country programme of cooperation on broader issues.

B. Technical assistance provided in the framework of the international labour standards Time-bound Programme financed by the Special Programme Account

- 46. At its 310th Session, the Governing Body allocated funds from the Special Programme Account (SPA) for a limited duration to support the strengthening of technical assistance with a view to improving the application of international labour standards. This technical assistance, which was guided by the work of the Committee of Experts and by that of the Conference Committee, targeted 46 countries (27 countries in Africa, seven countries in Asia, three countries in Europe and Central Asia, seven countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, and two Arab countries) that had expressed their readiness and availability to collaborate with a view to overcoming the obstacles facing the application of international labour standards.
- 47. This action led these countries to analyse their "report writing" practices and to benefit from technical advice and training with a view to building their reporting capacity in both quantitative and qualitative terms. Other countries benefitted from technical advice and training on the application of international labour standards, which allowed them to carry out actions with a view to reducing the implementation gap with respect to the specific Conventions they had ratified. With the assistance of the authorities of these countries, 125 activities were carried out, through which more than 1,400 tripartite partners and other key actors received training on, or were made more aware of, the standards and supervisory system of the ILO. In 2013, 72.5 per cent of the reports requested on the application of ratified Conventions were received, compared with 67.8 per cent in 2012; 11 legislative analyses were carried out; ten publications and other technical and training materials were developed or updated; and a database registering good practices related to reporting and compliance with international labour standards was created and is now accessible to tripartite constituents.
- 48. In addition to these figures, it should be noted that concrete and tangible examples of the improvements brought about by this programme may be observed in the participating countries. The programme has led to many improvements through the activities on constitutional reporting obligations and the activities on aligning legislation with ratified Conventions. In the Central African Republic, the first report on the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169), was received in 2013. In Morocco, 500 labour inspectors received training on international labour standards, and the inspection report requested under the Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), has been submitted for the first time in five years and contains more detailed statistics. Furthermore, a ministerial circular regarding the obligation of inspectors to provide information and statistics on discrimination in the workplace has been published by the Ministry of Labour, and a tripartite committee on international labour standards has been set up. In order to improve the quality of its annual labour inspection report, Burkina Faso requested assistance in the area of labour statistics. The assistance provided in that area by the standards specialist and the statistics specialist from the ILO DWT for West Africa and Country Office for Senegal, Benin, Burkina Faso, Cabo Verde, Côte d'Ivoire, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Mali, Mauritania, Niger and Togo (DWT/CO-Dakar) (March 2013) finally led to the amendment of the form used to collect statistical data. Once finalized, the new form would be validated in November 2013 to be introduced in 2014. In five other countries (Benin, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Cabo Verde and Togo), 11 legislative analyses and compliance studies have been carried out. In the Comoros and Lebanon, new laws and legislative amendments have been passed. In Saint Lucia, the Labour Code 2006 was proclaimed and the ILO supported the publication of a "Frequently asked questions" guide for employers on the new Labour Code. In Pakistan and Saint Kitts and Nevis, new bills have been or are in the process of being passed. In Peru, the national committee for combating forced labour adopted the National Plan (2013-17) in January 2013, which has been approved by the Ministry of Labour and Employment Promotion. In Cabo Verde, a plan of action has been adopted to gradually resolve the question of essential services in the event of a strike in the public service and an occupational safety and health (OSH) profile has been developed and validated by the tripartite constituents. In Zambia, following a request for technical assistance on reporting on 22 outstanding reports on ratified Conventions, a one-week tripartite interministerial workshop was held following which 19 reports were submitted. In Indonesia, a working group has been set up to examine the question of equal employment opportunities. In Georgia and Ukraine, the delay experienced in submitting the standards adopted by the Conference to the competent authorities has been offset. In Grenada, where no reports had been sent in 2010 and 2011, a plan of action to resolve the backlog was adopted during the tripartite workshop on international labour standards and reporting organized in June 2013. As a result, all reports due on ratified Conventions were sent before the Committee's meeting. In Lebanon, in February 2013, a tripartite national workshop on forced and child labour was held to assist with further development of the labour legislation on the basis of the CEACR comments. A national plan of action was adopted as an outcome of the workshop. In the United Republic of Tanzania, a tripartite inter-ministerial workshop held in September 2012 resulted in the development of a time-bound action plan by constituents on child labour and forced labour issues. A follow-up activity held in May 2013 illustrated that tangible results had been achieved in two-thirds of the areas identified in this plan, within the tight timelines that the constituents had established.

- 49. More generally, the strategy adopted for the implementation of this programme has made it possible to rationalize all ILO technical assistance relating to international labour standards. Moreover, synergies have been created to optimize the use of resources by focusing on selected countries with a view to achieving the expected results. Through this strategy, it was possible to mobilize considerably greater amounts of resources, which in turn allowed an increase in the number of activities in support of the selected countries.
- 50. A detailed report on this technical assistance programme, the activities undertaken and the results achieved can be requested at the following address: normes@ilo.org.

C. Technical assistance in reporting and other standards-related obligations

Africa

51. Training seminars on standards and the constitutional obligations relating to them for tripartite constituents, and especially for officials responsible for reports under article 22 of the ILO Constitution, were organized by the standards specialist from the DWT/CO–Dakar in Côte d'Ivoire (March 2013) and Sierra Leone (April 2013). These activities also provided an opportunity to emphasize the obligations relating to the submission of standards adopted by the International Labour Conference to the competent authorities.

- 52. Having ratified the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006), in 2011, Benin requested the Office to assist it in carrying out a comparative legislative study with a view to aligning its legislation and practices with the provisions of the Convention. The results of the study, validated in July 2013, allowed Benin to identify gaps and deficiencies in its maritime labour legislation and to adopt a roadmap and a plan of action intended to align its national legislation with the requirements of the MLC, 2006.
- 53. Having ratified the Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), the Labour Inspection (Agriculture) Convention, 1969 (No. 129), and the Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), as well as the Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187), Togo has benefited from comparative legislative studies intended to help identify gaps and deficiencies in its legislation and practice in that area with a view to aligning them with these instruments. The workshops for the presentation, validation and adoption of a roadmap and its plan of action were held in August and September 2013.
- 54. In Tunisia, NORMES and the Labour Migration Branch contributed to the workshop on mobility and legal migration organized by the International Centre for Migration Policy Development in February 2013, with the view to identifying priorities for further action in the context of Tunisia's migration policy.
- 55. In Egypt, the ILO DWT for North Africa and Country Office for Egypt, Eritrea, Sudan and South Sudan (DWT/CO–Cairo) provided technical support based on a strategic plan encompassing: (i) raising the capacity of stakeholders by training and preparing and/or updating gap analysis studies; and (ii) translating into Arabic international labour standards tools to break the language barrier and launch the material in relevant international labour standards activities and with concerned stakeholders.
- 56. The following technical assistance activities on issues related to international labour standards was also provided through the following events:
- A high-level seminar on freedom of association was held in April 2013 with the participation of the Government and independent trade unions which facilitated the review process of the Egyptian Trade Union Act No. 35. In this regard, the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards, in its conclusions, noted with interest the positive steps taken by the Government following the ILO high-level mission. At its November–December 2013 session, the Committee of Experts noted with interest that the final draft on trade union organizations and protection of the right to organize abandons the former single trade union system and recognizes trade union pluralism, and expressed the hope that it would soon be adopted.
- □ Facilitating transition from the informal to the formal economy by building capacities within the Egyptian Federation of Trade Unions for Professionals and Artisans (May 2012).
- Raising trade union knowledge on women's fundamental labour rights (March 2013).
- □ Technical support for the ratification of the MLC, 2006, provided in July 2012, with a view to harmonizing the national law with the Convention based on the gap analysis study.

- 57. In August 2013, a tripartite and inter-ministerial workshop was organized in Namibia by the standards specialist from the ILO DWT for Eastern and Southern Africa and Country Office for South Africa, Botswana, Lesotho, Namibia and Swaziland (DWT/CO–Pretoria) to assist the country in submitting quality article 22 reports. In Botswana, support was given to the first judicial conference organized in July 2013 by the Botswana Industrial Court. In March 2013, the standards specialist jointly facilitated, together with the ACTRAV specialist, a workshop for trade unionists in Botswana to assist them in achieving the priorities identified in the Botswana Decent Work Country Programme (DWCP) on workers' rights.
- 58. In South Africa, a tripartite workshop gathering several ministries was conducted in November 2012 on several new Conventions the country had decided to ratify. In addition, a workshop was organized in May 2013 by the Department for International Relations and Cooperation (DIRCO) aimed at promoting inter-ministerial collaboration regarding the country's reporting obligations under the Conventions the country has ratified, including the ILO Conventions. In September 2013, a workshop for judges of the South African Labour Court and Labour Appeals Court was also organized.
- 59. In addition, judges from Mozambique benefited from sensitization on international labour standards in collaboration with a senior law lecturer from Kenya in November 2013, and a similar activity was conducted in December 2013 in the Seychelles for the newly established Industrial Relations Court and the social partners (the sensitization of judges in United Republic of Tanzania has been postponed to 2014).
- 60. A workshop was organized by the Country Office in Harare in March 2013 for managers of the national employment councils (NECs) in Zimbabwe, on the topic of international labour standards in general with a particular focus on freedom of association. A workshop for members of the media took place at the end of October 2013 to introduce journalists to international labour standards and to the ILO supervisory mechanisms.

Americas

61. In Chile, with the help of the standards specialist of the ILO DWT and Country Office for the South Cone of Latin America (DWT/CO–Santiago) three training sessions were held for legal advisers of the labour directorate of the Ministry of Labour and its related services on international labour standards and their applicability in the management of the labour directorate and the link with Chilean labour law and social dialogue. These training sessions were carried out in the framework of the regional programme for the promotion of dialogue and social cohesion in Latin America. During the fifth national Congress of municipal civil servants, organized by the National Confederation of Municipal Employees of Chile (ASEMUCH) with the participation of the Single Central Organization of Chilean Workers (CUT), follow-up was given to the comments of the Committee of Experts regarding freedom of association and collective bargaining in the public sector and the last General Survey of 2013 on collective bargaining in the public service was outlined. The Office also provided input for the formulation of recommendations under the second cycle of the Universal Periodic Review of Chile. The recommendations support and reflect the position of the Committee of Experts on the implementation of the Conventions ratified by Chile on non-discrimination and equality of treatment, persons with disabilities, and indigenous peoples' rights.

- 62. In Paraguay, activities were carried out to promote the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189), which is of particular relevance for the country in addressing the problem of informality. Various Congress committees, including the Legislative Committee, the Justice and Labour Committee and the Equality, Gender and Social Development Committee, received technical assistance and guidance on obligations arising from the ratification of this Convention. In addition, documents prepared by the Inclusive Labour Markets, Labour Relations and Working Conditions Branch (INWORK) were issued. Paraguay ratified Convention No. 189 in May 2013.
- Under the strategic plan of the Supreme Court of Justice of Paraguay, in collaboration with the Human Rights Directorate of the Supreme Court, three training sessions were carried out on international labour standards, with an emphasis on the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), and the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169). ILO training on international law is of particular institutional interest, since international law is not part of university curriculums and judges and justice officials have not received training in this area in the last 15 years. In total, some 110 judges and justice officials have received training. In addition, an awareness-raising activity was carried out during a meeting held in the city of Filadelfia, in the Paraguayan Chaco, on the problem of forced labour with a view to expediting follow-up to the comments made by the supervisory bodies. For a number of years, the Committee of Experts has been issuing comments on the implementation of Conventions Nos 29 and 169, highlighting, among other things, the need to adopt a national strategy to combat and eradicate forced labour. The participants drew up a list containing concrete proposals for the development of a national plan for the eradication of forced labour. The proposals were presented to the Tripartite Advisory Committee on fundamental rights at work and the prevention of forced labour which decided to set up a working group - with ILO assistance - to analyse these proposals with a view to adopting a first national plan prior to the session of the Committee of Experts. Finally, with a view to strengthening the reporting capacity on international labour standards, a workshop was held for officials from several departments and bodies under the Office of the Deputy Minister of Labour, aimed at providing the officials concerned with practical guidance on reporting issues.
- 64. In Brazil, video conferences were held with a view to providing the technical assistance requested by the constituents. In May 2013, the NORMES Freedom of Association Branch participated in a tripartite seminar on the Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151), organized by the Ministry of Labour. Following the ratification of the Convention, the authorities and the social partners are considering the possibility of adopting additional regulations in this area.
- 65. In Peru, within the framework for the promotion of the submission processes and the ratifications of international labour standards, the international labour standards specialist of the ILO DWT and Country Office for the Andean Countries (DWT/CO–Lima) participated as a lecturer in two workshops organized by the Ministry of Labour and Employment Promotion. Thirty officials from several sectors of the Government and the self-governing entities participated in the workshops which covered the following subjects: introduction to the ILO; the international labour standards system; the supervisory bodies; the ratification of Conventions; the sending of reports; and Conventions Nos 87 and 98. The Peruvian authorities committed themselves to taking measures on reporting on international labour standards which had suffered a considerable delay. The follow-up will be done with the Ministry of Labour and Employment Promotion and with the executive branch.

- 66. In Colombia, pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding signed in 2012 between the Office of the Attorney-General of the Republic of Colombia and NORMES, the NORMES Freedom of Association Branch participated, in February 2013, in the first seminar for prosecutors and investigators of Colombia held in the city of Cali. Likewise, assistance was provided to the Special Committee for the Handling of Conflicts referred to the ILO (CETCOIT) in two cases which were successfully resolved.
- 67. In April and July 2013, the standards specialist from the ILO DWT and Country Office for Central America (DWT/CO–San José), at the request of the Ministries of Labour of Costa Rica and Honduras, organized a workshop on drafting reports concerning the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169), for the representatives of the public officials responsible for drafting reports, as well as for the representatives of employers' and workers' organizations in Honduras. The objective of the workshop was to help these countries fulfil their constitutional obligations and reply to the comments of the supervisory bodies on Convention No. 169. As a result, the reports were transmitted for examination by the Committee of Experts at its last session.
- 68. In March 2013, the standards specialist, in collaboration with ILO-IPEC, held meetings with officials from the Ministry of Labour of El Salvador concerning constitutional obligations, in particular the drafting of the reports on ratified Conventions. In April 2013, an activity on the right to strike organized by the specialist from ACTRAV was carried out in collaboration with the ILO project on the verification of compliance with the White Paper recommendations in order to provide an overview of the supervisory system and the principles underpinning the right to strike with regard to Convention No. 87. In September 2013, a subregional seminar was held in Costa Rica, in collaboration with ILO-IPEC and the specialist from ACTRAV, on the Minimum Age Convention, 1973 (No. 138), and the Worst Forms of Child Labour Convention, 1999 (No. 182). The objective of these workshops was to provide the trade union organizations of Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Panama with an overview of the supervisory system of the ILO and the scope of these Conventions.
- 69. In September 2013, at the invitation of the Government of Panama, the standards specialist, in collaboration with NORMES, the Governance and Tripartism Department (GOVERNANCE) and specialists from ACT/EMP and ACTRAV, participated in a technical assistance mission in order to follow up on the application of the tripartite agreements signed in February 2012 and in June 2013, after which two committees for dialogue on standards-related matters were set up: one dealing with follow-up to questions raised in the Committee of Experts' comments on the application of Conventions Nos 87 and 98, and the other dealing with the rapid handling of complaints regarding freedom of association. Furthermore, a workshop on dialogue, democracy and freedom of association was held to provide an overview of the supervisory system of the ILO, the content of Conventions Nos 87 and 98, as well as the principles of social dialogue.
- 70. The standards specialist of the ILO DWT and Office for the Caribbean (DWT–Port-of-Spain) organized and facilitated a training workshop on international labour standards and reporting obligations in Barbados in October 2013 with officials from the Ministry of Labour and other government institutions and the social partners. The objective was to raise awareness and enhance cooperation among governmental institutions on preparing the reports. A labour officer from Saint Vincent and the Grenadines was associated with the delivery of the workshop to share his experience in the spirit of intra-Caribbean cooperation. The ILO DWT–Port-of-Spain provided technical support to Anguilla for drafting a new Labour Code. In addition, a gap analysis of the legislation in Trinidad and Tobago, based on the ILO Recommendation concerning the HIV and AIDS Recommendation, 2010 (No. 200), was carried out in the period April–July 2013.

Arab States

- 71. In September 2012, the standards specialist of the ILO DWT for the Arab States (DWT–Beirut) advised the Jordanian Maritime Authority on the issuance of seafarers' identity documents and reporting on the Seafarers' Identity Documents Convention (Revised), 2003 (No. 185). In addition, in February 2013, a multidisciplinary seminar was held in Jordan, to raise awareness of labour inspectors on the issue of forced labour, especially with regard to migrant workers.
- 72. A major activity during the last two years consisted in providing assistance and comments on draft labour legislation for Iraq and the autonomous Kurdistan region. In October 2012, the standards specialist accompanied to Geneva a study group consisting of members of the national Iraqi Parliament, as well as members of the Kurdistan Government. While the Government of Iraq has not further cooperated with the ILO on drafting new labour legislation, the Kurdistan regional Government has requested, and received, major technical assistance from the ILO Regional Office for the Arab States (RO–Arab States) in Beirut. Based on a draft Labour Code for Iraq and comments by the Governance and Tripartism Department (GOVERNANCE). The regional standards specialist and a former member of the Committee of Experts undertook three missions to Kurdistan and had extensive and fruitful exchanges with the tripartite constituents and academics, whose outcomes were channelled into a final draft to be submitted to the Kurdistan regional Parliament ahead of elections in October 2013.
- 73. In March 2013, joint missions by the ILO RO–Arab States and NORMES were undertaken to Kuwait and Oman, to explain the Committee of Experts' comments to constituents and to assist them in fulfilling their reporting obligations.

Asia

- 74. In January 2013, the standards specialist of the ILO DWT for East and South East Asia and the Pacific (DWT–Bangkok) undertook a mission to the Philippines to present freedom of association principles in the national context in support of the roll-out of the joint guidelines on the role of security and armed forces in respecting freedom of association rights. <sup>6</sup> In July 2013, assistance to the Government Maritime Agency (MARINA) on reporting on the Seafarers' Identity Documents Convention (Revised), 2003 (No. 185), was also provided in the context of the preparation of the Government's first report.
- 75. The ILO Country Office for South Pacific Island Countries (CO–Suva) is developing a tailored Pacific-specific guidance package to support the delivery of future training of ILO member States to assist with fulfilling their reporting obligations under the ILO Constitution. This is in response to continuing capacity issues relating to reporting throughout the region. Technical support was provided by the CO–Suva to Vanuatu, Tuvalu and Tonga to finalize the reports requested under article 19 of the Constitution with a view to the preparation of the General Survey on the minimum wage fixing machinery.

76. The standards specialist of the ILO DWT for South Asia and Country Office for India (DWT/CO–New Delhi) was involved in the following: (i) mission to support a project under the Declaration of 1998 and provide advice on a Labour Law reform in the Republic of Maldives; (ii) mission to Nepal to provide inputs on the National Child Labour Policy; (iii) mission to India to follow-up on the application of the Equal Remuneration Convention, 1951 (No. 100); (iv) mission to Afghanistan to provide technical assistance concerning reporting, including pending first reports and submission, as well as a briefing to the Afghan delegation to the ILC; and (v) mission to Pakistan to provide technical assistance on reporting issues.

Europe

77. In the Russian Federation a two-day tripartite training seminar on the application of, and reporting on, ratified Conventions was conducted by NORMES in April 2013 drawing 95 participants from all government departments and the social partners involved. Individual consultations were organized for government officials preparing information requested in the comments of the Committee of Experts under various Conventions.

D. Training activities

- (a) Activities developed in collaboration with the International Training Centre in Turin (Turin Centre)
  - 78. In 2013, 58 training activities have been conducted at the interregional, regional, subregional and national levels representing a total of 1,069 participants (of which 45 per cent were women) from governments, employers' and workers' organizations and other key national actors (judges, labour inspectors and media professionals) originating from 136 member States. These training courses address procedures relating to standard setting and supervision, as well as specific topics such as equality in employment, freedom of association, elimination of child labour and forced labour, the use of international labour standards by national jurisdictions and media professionals. The following activities undertaken in 2013 provide a good illustration of the collaboration of the Turin Centre in this respect:
  - Several training activities on standards intended to strengthen the capacity of constituents to comply with standards-related procedures were organized in 2013. In addition to the standards course held prior to the 102nd Session of the ILC, which was attended by 46 participants from all regions, and the distance training course on the preparation of reports for representatives of ministries of labour experiencing difficulties in the drafting and transmission of reports, two regional training activities were organized in the context of the follow-up to the 12th African Regional Meeting held in 2011, one tripartite activity in Dakar (Senegal), and the other in Turin for media professionals.
  - □ In relation to freedom of association, two regional training activities for trade union lawyers were held in Bangkok (Thailand) and Amman (Jordan). In this context, the Turin Centre also organized the first global meeting of ILO officials and experts involved in technical cooperation.

- Several training activities on ILS for judges, lawyers and legal educators were organized in 2013. For the first time a high-level symposium on international labour standards was organized for African supreme courts in Livingstone (Zambia). The symposium gave effect to the recommendations of the 12th African Regional Meeting held in 2011. The symposium was attended by 17 judges from both French- and English-speaking African countries, including two chief justices. Other activities included the annual interregional course in Turin and the regular course for Latin America. The latter was held in Lima (Peru) in collaboration with the Academy for Magistrates of Peru, with which a collaboration agreement was signed in 2012. A national course was also organized in Malé (Republic of Maldives), which was attended by labour court and high court judges, as well as lawyers and legal educators. With reference to training materials for judges, it should be noted that the Turin Centre has updated in English, French and Spanish the Compendium of Court Decisions that have relied on international labour standards and other international legal instruments. Moreover, a new database developed to allow general access to the Compendium has been launched and is accessible both on the Turin Centre website and NORMLEX.
- □ With regard to training materials, the Guide to international labour standards has been updated in English, French and Spanish, and the website on reporting obligations has been strengthened with further examples and new practical tools, including commentaries on the report forms for ratified Conventions.

(b) Training on issues related to indigenous peoples

- 79. The ILO published in 2013 a handbook elaborated by the Programme to Promote ILO Convention No. 169 (PRO 169) and NORMES in close cooperation with ACT/EMP and ACTRAV, with the aim of providing the ILO constituents with a practical tool to better understand the relevance, scope and implications of Convention No. 169 and to foster joint efforts for its implementation. The handbook is available online on the ILO website.
- 80. In July 2013, PRO 169 carried out a training programme for indigenous fellows, in collaboration with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), as a part of the annual UN Indigenous Fellowship Programme.
- 81. At the regional level, PRO 169 participated in the regional seminar on "Indigenous peoples' right to prior consultation: The role of ombudspersons in Latin America" organized in Lima by the Ibero-American Federation of Ombudspersons in April 2013. In collaboration with ACTRAV, the programme realized an online distance training course on the rights of indigenous peoples for Latin American trade unions. In September 2013, PRO 169 organized the annual advanced human rights course on indigenous peoples' rights in collaboration with the Human Rights Centre of Pretoria. In the framework of South–South cooperation, PRO 169 also supported, in June and July 2013, the study visit of Government representatives and parliamentarians of the indigenous caucus from Bangladesh to the Philippines, Thailand and Cambodia to gain an insight into these countries' experience in integrating and implementing indigenous and tribal peoples' rights in national policies and legislation.
- 82. At the national level, the programme, in collaboration with standards specialists, has been participating and organizing capacity-building activities on indigenous peoples' rights, particularly on the promotion and implementation of Conventions Nos 111 and 169, in various countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America, including Bangladesh, the Plurinational State of Bolivia, Cambodia, Cameroon, Central African Republic,

- Guatemala, Honduras, Namibia, Nicaragua, Peru and Philippines. The activities have included capacity building for target groups such as government officials, human rights institutions, parliamentarians, employers' and workers' organizations, indigenous peoples' organizations, indigenous women, traditional leaders, youth and journalists.
- 83. In particular, at the request of the Government of Honduras, a number of training activities were organized on Convention No. 169 for public officials from various ministries. The programme also continued to support the national implementation of Convention No. 169 in Peru through capacity building of public officials, indigenous leaders and interpreters in indigenous languages as well as training to the private sector. Similarly, in the Plurinational State of Bolivia, capacity-building workshops were organized with public officials and indigenous peoples' organizations in collaboration with the UN system. A training workshop was also realized in collaboration with ACT/EMP on Convention No. 169 for the Bolivian Confederation of Private Entrepreneurs.
- 84. At the initiative of the Ministry of Chittagong Hill Tracts Affairs of Bangladesh, a national training seminar on Convention No. 169 was organized for high-level government officials and military personnel serving in Chittagong Hill Tracts. Trainings were equally held for indigenous peoples' traditional leaders, women and youth. In Namibia, a four-day seminar on the rights of indigenous peoples was organized in collaboration with the University of Namibia with more than 35 participants among government officials, indigenous peoples' organizations and civil society.
- 85. In addition, in May 2013, the standards specialist of the DWT/CO–San José participated together with PRO 169 in meetings organized by the UN system on the implementation of Convention No. 169 in Costa Rica. These meetings aimed to present Convention No. 169 and to explain the ILO supervisory system. Civil servants from several government ministries and other state bodies, as well as indigenous peoples and civil society representatives participated in these meetings. The standards specialist, in collaboration with ILO–IPEC, also participated in training on Convention No. 169 for officials of the UN system working in El Salvador. This training aimed to make officials familiar with the contents of the Convention.
- 86. In September 2013, the standards specialist gave a lecture on indigenous peoples' rights as part of a degree from the Judicial School of Nicaragua, focusing on Convention No. 169 and the ILO supervisory system. More than 40 participants attended the course, including judges, magistrates and representatives of indigenous peoples.
- 87. The DWT/CO–Santiago participated in sessions of the Congress' technical committees, providing technical guidance in relation to draft legislation in light of the Conventions ratified by Chile and the comments issued by the supervisory bodies. It also participated in sessions of the Bicameral Congressional Committee on Convention No. 169 and its implementation, established in January 2013 to provide guidance on the parameters established by the Committee of Experts regarding indigenous peoples' right to consultation and to provide information on the latest comments made by the Committee of Experts regarding the implementation of Convention No. 169 by Chile. In 2013, the Office also provided technical assistance under the dialogue process between the different representatives of the indigenous peoples of Chile to guide the formulation of their proposals in preparation for the consultation convened by the Government. On the basis of the comments of the Committee of Experts, assistance was provided for the Mesa de Consenso (consensus forum) to launch a dialogue process to reach a consensus regarding regulations on a national consultation mechanism in line with Convention No. 169.

(c) Other training activities

Africa

- 88. With the support of the Programme to Support the Implementation of the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (PAMODEC), a training seminar on fundamental principles and rights at work was organized by the standards specialist of the ILO DWT for Central Africa and Country Office for Cameroon, Angola and Sao Tome and Principe (DWT/CO–Yaoundé) for judges in Cameroon (April 2013).
- 89. In Swaziland, a training on international labour standards with a focus on freedom of association was delivered in May 2013 by the standards and ACTRAV specialists of the DWT/CO–Pretoria in a workshop for trade unionists from the Trade Union Congress of Swaziland (TUCOSWA). Furthermore, a manual on freedom of association and labour inspection for the rural sector has been prepared and validated during a training workshop for labour inspectors in South Africa.
- 90. Two inter-ministerial tripartite workshops intended to assist the Governments of Namibia and Malawi to submit article 22 reports were conducted by the standards specialist from the ILO DWT/CO–Pretoria in August and November 2013, respectively. These workshops gathered, in addition to officials from the ministries of labour and the social partners, also other technical ministries, such as of gender and of agriculture, as well as the Office of the Ombudsman (Namibia) and a judge from the Industrial Court (Malawi).
- 91. The standards specialist of the DWT/CO-Cairo organized a regional event in Africa relating to reporting on international labour standards and two other training activities for judges and media professionals.

Americas

- 92. In April 2013, the standards specialist of the DWT/CO-San José, in collaboration with the Better Work Programme, held a tripartite training workshop on the ILO supervisory system and fundamental Conventions in Costa Rica. More than 40 persons participated in this training workshop, including civil servants from the Ministry of Labour, the labour mediator and representatives from employers' and workers' organizations. In May and June 2013, the standards specialist, in collaboration with the social dialogue and labour administration specialist, and Better Work also participated in two training sessions for labour inspectors in Nicaragua. The aim of that training session was to outline the ILO's supervisory system and the contents of the Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), the Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), the Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and the Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187). More than 125 labour and health and occupational safety inspectors participated in these training sessions. In July 2013, at the request of representatives of workers in El Salvador, the standards specialist organized training on the Nursing Personnel Convention, 1977 (No. 149).
- 93. The standards specialist of the ILO DWT–Port-of-Spain organized and/or participated in the following activities:
- a training workshop on international labour standards and fundamental principles and rights at work for the officers of the National Trade Union Congress of Trinidad and Tobago (February 2013), in collaboration with the Senior Specialist on Workers' Activities;

- a subregional capacity-building course on gender equality at work for Caribbean labour courts (Barbados, September 2013) organized by the Bureau for Gender Equality; and
- a national training course for inspectors on the MLC, 2006, was organized in Saint Kitts and Nevis in April 2013 with the support of an expert from Canada.

Asia

- 94. A training on the ILO, the ILO Constitution and fundamental Conventions took place with new and potential member States (Tonga, Marshall Islands and Palau) in November 2013. The focus was on broadening and deepening knowledge of the ILO supervisory system and the benefits of ratification of the fundamental and governance Conventions. Tonga has expressed an intention in principle to join the ILO in the near future
- 95. The standards specialist of the DWT/CO–New Delhi participated in a training activity in the Republic of Maldives on the eight fundamental Conventions following their ratification in early 2013.

Europe

96. In April 2013, a seminar on labour standards and equality and non-discrimination was delivered in France in the framework of the master's degree programme entitled "Inequality and discrimination: Managing the contemporary challenges of equality" at the University of Lyon II–Lumière. Furthermore, a workshop on the main OSH instruments was held at the National School for the Judiciary (École nationale de la magistrature) in Paris.

E. Promotional activities

- (a) Action plan to achieve rapid and widespread ratification and effective implementation of the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006)
  - 97. The MLC, 2006, entered into force on 20 August 2013, one year after the ratifications of the first 30 countries representing a gross tonnage of at least 33 per cent of total combined gross tonnage of the world merchant fleet had been received. Thus, it became binding international law for the first 30 Members that had registered ratifications on 20 August 2012. For Members with ratifications registered after 20 August 2012, in accordance with its Article VIII, paragraph 4, the MLC, 2006, will enter into force 12 months after the date on which the Member's ratification is registered by the Director-General. To date, 23 additional countries have ratified the Convention, bringing the total number of registered ratifications to 53 with a total combined gross tonnage of over 80 per cent. The registration of the ratification by three Members <sup>9</sup> is still pending the receipt of the information regarding the branches of social security protection that is required by Standard A4.5, paragraph 10, of the Convention. This brings the total number of ratifications to 56.

&lt;sup>7</sup> The ratifications by the following 30 Members had been registered on 20 August 2012, representing a total share of nearly 60 per cent of the world gross tonnage (in order of ratification): Liberia, Marshall Islands, Bahamas, Panama, Norway, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Spain, Croatia, Bulgaria, Canada, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Switzerland, Benin, Singapore, Denmark (which extended application to the Faeroe Islands), Antigua and Barbuda, Latvia, Luxembourg, Kiribati, Netherlands, Australia, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Tuvalu, Togo, Poland, Palau, Sweden, Cyprus, Russian Federation and Philippines.

- 98. In addition to achieving the entry into force of the Convention, the second objective of the Action Plan aims to ensure the effective implementation of the MLC, 2006, at the national level by strengthening the capacity of maritime labour inspection systems in flag and port States well in advance of the entry into force of the Convention in those countries. By strengthening the inspection capacity at an early level, it is hoped that ratifying countries will be better equipped to confront the immense workload of inspecting and certifying vessels by the initial entry into force.
- 99. In this connection, the Office has devised several training courses and workshops that are mainly delivered through the Maritime Labour Academy established by the Turin Centre.
- The ILO Maritime Labour Academy, which was launched in 2011, is a programme of six specialized courses (Tracks 1–6). In addition to the "Training of trainers and maritime inspectors in the application of the ILO MLC, 2006" (Track 1), four new tracks were added to focus on: governments' legal counsels involved in the transposition of the MLC, 2006 (Track 2); ships' operators and officers (Track 3); seafarers and seafarers' representatives (Track 4); and the cruise industry (Track 5). In 2014, a new academy track for recruitment and placement agencies (Track 6) is scheduled to take place in September.
- According to the data from the Turin Centre, in 2013: Track 1 was attended by 58 participants (48 males and ten females); Track 2 was attended by 37 participants (18 males and 19 females); Track 3 was attended by 46 participants (26 males and 20 females); Track 4 was attended by 23 participants (21 males and two females); and Track 5 was attended by 88 participants (38 males and 50 females). In total, 13 track editions were held in 2013, attended by 252 participants (151 males and 101 females).

100. The Office has also responded to requests from Members for assistance in building their capacity to carry out the legal work necessary to move towards ratifying the MLC, 2006, such as adopting a coordinated approach with ILO regional or subregional offices to support national legal gap analyses. <sup>10</sup> The Office has also provided technical assistance in the form of national workshops for tripartite constituents. For instance, a three-day MLC, 2006, workshop for ship operators took place in Germany (March 2013) to provide ship operators with a comprehensive understanding of the manner in which the Convention would be effectively implemented in practice. In addition, the Office has participated in other events, such as the Summer Academy of the International Foundation for the Law of the Sea, which is organized under the auspices of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea in Hamburg, Germany.

&lt;sup>10</sup> To date, the Office has supported legal gap analyses in 30 countries, the preparation of draft legislation for some 20 countries, and has provided advice and comments to assist with implementation for a large number of other Members and industry actors. Most recently, the Office funded gap analyses concerning the national legislation for Chile, Honduras, and Saint Kitts and Nevis concerning compliance with the provisions of the MLC, 2006.

101. In September 2013, a Meeting of Experts was held to review and adopt guidelines for ships' cooks, in accordance with a Governing Body decision at its 310th Session (March 2011). These guidelines will assist Members to implement requirements of Regulation 3.2 and the accompanying provisions of the Code concerning the minimum standards for food and catering on board.

102. In response to a growing number of requests for information and electronic resources, a database for MLC, 2006-related information and reports which, under the Convention, need to be communicated to the Director-General of the ILO, was officially launched on 20 August 2013. In addition, the Office is in the process of finalizing two draft handbooks on maritime OSH (which will be discussed at a tripartite meeting of experts scheduled for October 2014) and on shore-based seafarers' welfare facilities.

103. Finally, it will be recalled that the Governing Body, at its 318th Session in June 2013, established a Special Tripartite Committee (also referred to as "the MLC Committee"), to keep the MLC, 2006, under review. The first meeting of the Special Tripartite Committee, to be held in April 2014, will consider a proposal for amendments to the Code of the Convention in accordance with Article XV of the MLC, 2006, notably concerning liability and compensation regarding claims for death, personal injury and abandonment of seafarers.

 (b) Plan of action to improve the conditions of work of fishers through the widespread ratification and effective implementation of the Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188)

104. The 2011–16 action plan to improve the conditions of work of fishers was adopted in November 2010. To this end, a Global Dialogue Forum for the Promotion of the Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188), was held in Geneva in May 2013 to discuss challenges in the Convention's implementation, to evaluate how it could be used as a tool to address major issues in the sector, to share good practices and experiences, to report and review promotional activities, and to provide an update on the status of national efforts to implement and ratify the Convention.

(c) Plan of action to achieve widespread ratification and effective implementation of OSH instruments (Convention No. 155, its 2002 Protocol, and Convention No. 187)

105. The plan of action to achieve widespread ratification and effective implementation of the three key OSH instruments <sup>11</sup> was adopted by the Governing Body in March 2010 and covers the period 2010–16. Since 2013, in the context of the implementation of this plan of action, activities have been carried out in the form of technical assistance given to countries, and promotional tools have been developed. Technical assistance consisted of the analysis of draft legislation and legal advice from the perspective of the key OSH instruments, including gap analyses between the national legislation and practice and the Conventions concerned, and/or assistance with the formulation of national OSH policies, strategies and profiles.

106. Analysis and recommendations on draft legislation or legal advice from the perspective of OSH Conventions was provided to Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Brazil, Burkina Faso, Cabo Verde, Chad, China, Egypt, Ghana, Guyana, Haiti, Japan, Libya, Mauritius, Mexico, Morocco, Myanmar, Niger, Papua New Guinea, Peru, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Seychelles, Switzerland, Thailand, Togo, Tunisia, Uruguay and Zambia.

107. With the assistance of the Office, policies and strategies have been adopted in Bangladesh, Botswana, Cabo Verde, Namibia, Pakistan, Seychelles, United Republic of Tanzania and Zambia. A national OSH programme has been adopted in Zambia and national OSH profiles have been adopted in Cabo Verde, Jamaica and Malawi.

108. In Zambia, technical assistance was provided on the basis of the CEACR comments on the application of the Safety and Health in Mines Convention, 1995 (No. 176). The Office organized two workshops: (i) the OSH Policy Workshop; and (ii) the OSH Mines Regulation Workshop, which was aimed at examining draft legislation to improve the application of Convention No. 176. In Cabo Verde, technical assistance was provided on the basis of the CEACR comments on the application of Convention No. 155. During a tripartite workshop, participants adopted a national OSH profile and developed essential elements of a national policy on OSH in accordance with Article 4 of Convention No. 155. In Togo, a tripartite workshop was held to validate a legislative gap analysis of Convention No. 187. Participants developed specific components for a prospective national OSH policy, defined a roadmap on the measures that must be taken to implement Convention No. 187 and established the priorities to give effect to this Convention in view of the communication of the Government's first report to the CEACR. They also appointed a committee which will be in charge of the follow-up of the proposed roadmap.

109. In addition, in order to promote and support the establishment of a culture of prevention in OSH issues, general awareness-raising tools have been developed. One brochure presenting the key instruments, "Building a preventative safety and health culture", was published, and a guideline on how to elaborate a national policy, in accordance with Article 4 of Convention No. 155 and Article 3 of Convention No. 187, is in preparation.

110. Since the adoption of the plan of action, there have been 25 new ratifications of Convention No. 155, its 2002 Protocol or Convention No. 187; <sup>12</sup> and 24 ratifications <sup>13</sup> of other up-to-date OSH Conventions.

Convention No. 176: Belgium (02.10.12), Morocco (04.06.13), Russian Federation (19.07.13), Slovenia (01.03.10) and Ukraine (15.06.11). Convention No. 184: Ghana (06.06.11) and Portugal (08.11.12).

(d) Plan of action towards widespread ratification and effective implementation of the governance Conventions

111. The plan of action, covering the period 2010–16, was adopted by the Governing Body in November 2009. <sup>14</sup> In the context of its implementation, the Office actively promotes both the ratification and application of the labour inspection Conventions through needs assessments, training activities, policy advice for governments and social dialogue on labour inspection. In the previous biennium (2012–13), the ILO provided such technical assistance in Albania, Algeria, Bangladesh, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Burkina Faso, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dominican Republic, Egypt, El Salvador, Gabon, Greece, Haiti, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Jordan, Lebanon, Lesotho, Mexico, Republic of Moldova, Mongolia, Myanmar, Namibia, Oman, Peru, Philippines, South Africa, Sri Lanka, Thailand, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Togo, Tunisia, Uganda, Ukraine and Viet Nam. <sup>15</sup>

112. Assistance in the form of analysis and recommendations on draft legislation or legal advice from the perspective of the labour inspection Conventions, including gap analyses between the national legislation and practice and the Conventions concerned, was provided by the Office to Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Botswana, Burkina Faso, Cambodia, Chad, Haiti, Libya, Mexico, Morocco, Myanmar, Niger, Peru, Iraq, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Saint Kitts and Nevis and Togo.

113. A tripartite workshop was held in Togo to validate the comparative legislative studies of Conventions Nos 81, 129 and 150 intended to help the country identify gaps and deficiencies in its legislation and practice. Participants defined a roadmap on the measures to be taken to implement Conventions Nos 81, 129 and 150, and established the priorities to give effect to these Conventions in view of the communication of the Government's first reports to the CEACR. The participants also appointed a committee which will be in charge of the follow-up of the proposed roadmap.

114. The research conducted by the ILO, as a follow-up to the action plan, is another important factor towards developing knowledge in the area of labour inspection. In 2012–13, the ILO carried out a comparative study of member States' law and practice regarding labour inspection sanctions, in order to help policy-makers better understand and improve their own sanction systems. A study analysing connections between the employment relationship and the role of labour inspection as a governance tool to protect workers' rights and assist labour inspectorates in better understanding and developing approaches to address employment relationship issues in the workplace has also been carried out. Twenty-nine additional profiles were added to the national labour inspection system database, thereby bringing the total to 65 profiles.

115. Technical tools (including a self-assessment tool for labour inspection systems and a standard methodology for labour inspection statistics based on a pilot project in ten countries) have been developed to assist labour inspection systems to apply the principles of the Conventions. In the previous biennium (2012–13), the ILO delivered training to 1,410 labour inspectors from 65 member States in collaboration with the Turin Centre. This included the second Labour Administration and Inspection Academy held in Turin with participants from 33 countries. Capacity-building activities also included the adaptation of the labour inspection and gender equality training module to the Indonesian, as well as the Arab States, context and the development of a distance learning training platform for labour inspectors based on the Turin Centre curriculum.

116. With respect to the Employment Policy Convention, 1964 (No. 122), the Office prepared a guide on employment policy and international labour standards, which is already available in English and Arabic.

117. Since the adoption of the plan of action, there have been four new ratifications of Convention No. 81, <sup>16</sup> five new ratifications for Convention No. 129, <sup>17</sup> seven new ratifications for Convention No. 122 <sup>18</sup> and 11 new ratifications for Convention No. 144. <sup>19</sup>

(e) ILO policy on indigenous peoples

118. PRO 169 has continued to undertake a wide range of activities at different levels to promote the application of the principles of the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169), and other relevant ILO Conventions. At the international level, PRO 169 provided technical contributions to the UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the Inter-Agency Support Group on Indigenous Issues, among others. Furthermore, the ILO continues to be the host organization for the Technical Secretariat of the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Partnership (UNIPP), a joint rights-based initiative recently created by the ILO, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), the UNDP, UNICEF and the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) for the implementation of international standards on indigenous peoples at the country level. Since March 2012, UNIPP has been implementing six country projects (Plurinational State of Bolivia, Cameroon, Central African Republic, Congo, Nepal and Nicaragua) and a regional South-East Asian programme covering Indonesia, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Philippines and Viet Nam, which support capacity-building activities, the establishment of dialogue processes and participatory and consultative mechanisms to promote and guarantee the respect of indigenous peoples' rights as enshrined in Convention No. 169 and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

119. In May 2013, the ILO, in collaboration with UNICEF, the UN Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women), the UNFPA and the Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Violence against Children published a study on "Breaking the silence on violence against indigenous girls, adolescents and young women" based on an overview of existing evidence from Africa, Asia and the Pacific and Latin America. The study, a first of its kind, was launched in New York during the 12th session of the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues and was presented at the ILO in Geneva on the occasion of the International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples on 9 August 2013.

&lt;sup>19</sup> Afghanistan (07.04.10), Canada (13.06.11), Ethiopia (06.06.11), Ghana (06.06.11), Honduras (12.06.12), Israel (21.01.10), Lao People's Democratic Republic (29.10.10), Morocco (16.05.13), Saint Vincent and the Grenadines (09.11.10), Singapore (04.10.10) and Slovenia (29.06.11).

(f) Other promotional activities

120. Several activities to promote the ratification of up-to-date Conventions were carried out by the standards specialists in the various external offices in 2013.

Africa

- 121. With the support of the ILO DWT/CO-Yaoundé, preliminary studies have been carried out in Cameroon to support the ratification process of the Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), and the Human Resources Development Convention, 1975 (No. 142), (August–September 2013). On the request of the Government, the Office supported onsite research to identify forms of work imposed on prisoners that are considered as forced labour under the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), and the Abolition of Forced Labour Convention, 1957 (No. 105). National activities for the promotion of the Conventions on child labour continue, especially through a national action plan for the eradication of the worst forms of child labour, which is currently awaiting approval, with the support of NORMES and ILO–IPEC.
- 122. NORMES, in collaboration with the standards specialist of the DWT/CO–Dakar, also carried out a comparative legal study between the national legislation and practice of Benin and the Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102). The national tripartite validation workshop recommended the ratification of the Convention and adopted a roadmap in this respect. With a view to promoting the ratification by Cabo Verde of the Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187), a national OSH profile was established and validated in August 2013. As a result, a draft national OSH policy has been formulated and submitted to the social partners for discussion.
- 123. Moreover, gap analyses between the national legislation and the Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), were also carried out in Botswana and Namibia in September and October 2013 with a view to the ratification of the Convention, with the support of NORMES and the standards specialist of the DWT/CO–Pretoria. Promotional workshops on Conventions Nos 181 and 189 were also organized in South Africa which ratified the latter Convention on 20 June 2013.

Americas

- 124. In 2013, the standards specialist of the ILO DWT/CO–San José, in collaboration with the gender issues specialist, held meetings and carried out training activities with the constituents and the members of legislative assemblies of Costa Rica, Nicaragua and El Salvador to promote the ratification of the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189). In addition, in February 2013, on the request of the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare of Guatemala, the standards specialist participated in the activities relating to the submission of Convention No. 189 and the related consultations with the social partners.
- 125. The standards specialist of the ILO DWT-Port-of-Spain carried out, together with an expert from Canada, a tripartite awareness-raising seminar on the MLC, 2006, in Trinidad and Tobago in April 2013. The seminar was organized in collaboration with the Seamen and Waterfront Workers Trade Union. The standards specialist also participated at the "Rights and Governance" Symposium organized by the Industrial Court of Trinidad and Tobago in May 2013 and delivered a presentation on international labour standards. The Office also provides technical assistance to the Governments of Chile and Honduras in conducting an analysis to identify gaps between the MLC, 2006, and the national maritime legislation. These analyses are meant to guide the future action of the respective Governments and help them move towards ratification and effective implementation of the MLC, 2006.

126. A series of workshops on the role of international labour standards in accessing international markets and supporting the Caribbean single market were facilitated by the standards specialist and the senior specialist on employers' activities and organized in collaboration with employers' organizations in each country. Workshops have been carried out in: Grenada, Saint Lucia and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines (February 2013); Anguilla, Antigua and Barbuda, Barbados and Saint Kitts and Nevis (March 2013); Belize and Jamaica (June 2013); Dominica, Suriname and Trinidad and Tobago, (July 2013); Dominican Republic (October 2013, with the standards specialist from the DWT–San Jose), Guyana (November 2013) and Aruba (December 2013).

Asia

127. In June 2013, the standards specialist of the DWT–Bangkok undertook missions to the Lao People's Democratic Republic and Malaysia in the framework of a campaign to promote the ratification of the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and the Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), in selected Asian countries assisting the respective workers' organizations in the formulation of national action plans to promote their ratification.

128. The standards specialist of the ILO DWT/CO–New Delhi carried out various promotional activities in the following countries:

- India: promotion of the ratification of the Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188); promotion of the Private Employment Agencies Convention, 1997 (No. 181), with the National Labour Institute; drafting of a note on forced labour on the sumangali system; activities in the garment sector including with jury members in public hearings promoting the application of the Minimum Wage-Fixing Machinery Convention, 1928 (No. 26), and a study on labour retention in the garment sector; activities to promote the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189); and presentations on child labour and freedom of association.
- □ Nepal: promotion of the Home Work Convention, 1996 (No. 177), and the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189).
- □ Afghanistan: promotion of the application of international labour standards through a technical advisory note to the Government; a general promotional comparative note on international labour standards and "Islamic labour values"; a lecture on international labour standards at Kabul University; and contributions to the project proposal on child-bonded labour in brick kilns.

Specific activities undertaken in collaboration with other international organizations concerning international labour standards

A. United Nations system

129. International labour standards and the provisions of the UN human rights treaties related to them are complementary and mutually reinforcing. Close cooperation between the ILO and the UN in relation to its human rights treaties is therefore an important strategy to enhance the influence of ILO standards and to ensure consistency and coherence within the UN system with regard to human rights at work.

130. In this context, it is also important to recall that, drawing on the lessons learnt through the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), reflection has started globally on what a post-2015 agenda should look like so as to be anchored in the core values of human rights, equality and sustainability. With a view to being active in this process and ensuring that decent work is accepted as a core component of the post-2015 agenda, the Governing Body decided at its 316th Session (November 2012) that the ILO should develop and implement a strategy for the adoption of full and productive employment and decent work as an explicit goal of the global development agenda beyond 2015, including a reference to the need for social protection floors. In October 2013, at its 319th session, the Governing Body adopted a six-point strategy <sup>20</sup> on future ILO work on a post-2015 sustainable development framework.

Cooperation with United Nations human rights treaty and Charter-based bodies

- 131. The Office has undertaken activities with the UN human rights bodies responsible for supervising the application of the following instruments:
- ☐ International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.
- □ International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women.
- ☐ International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination.
- □ Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- ☐ International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families.
- Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.
- 132. The Office regularly submits reports to the different treaty bodies containing standards-related information regarding the countries examined by them. These ILO reports include information on the ratification of ILO Conventions relevant to the provisions of the respective UN human rights treaties, summaries of the findings and recommendations of the ILO supervisory bodies and information on ILO technical assistance, as appropriate. In addition, Office representatives participate in the sessions of the treaty and Charter-based bodies and provide oral advice and information on specific countries or particular subjects. The Office also contributes to specific working groups or sessions of these bodies (United Nations Working Group on discrimination against women in law and in practice, Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), etc.) and the general comments elaborated by these treaty bodies concerning issues that come within the ILO's remit (for example, Committee on Migrant Workers (CMW), draft general comment No. 2 on irregular migrant workers).

Cooperation with the Human Rights Council

133. The Office continues to promote international labour standards in the context of the UN Human Rights Council. With respect to the Universal Periodic Review, the Office regularly draws the attention of the UN secretariat to the available reports of the ILO supervisory bodies. The documentation prepared by the UN secretariat as a basis for the Universal Periodic Review includes information on the ratification of fundamental ILO Conventions by the country under review, as well as references to comments of the Committee of Experts. The Office also contributes to the work of the other mechanisms and mandates set up by the Council, including the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the work of Special Rapporteurs. In particular, the Office has continued to collaborate with the Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples.

Cooperation with other United Nations bodies and entities

134. The ILO continues to develop its relations with the International Maritime Organization (IMO). The two organizations have complementary mandates in respect of merchant shipping: the ILO is responsible for social issues and those to do with labour, while the IMO addresses other aspects. The IMO has officially recognized the MLC, 2006, as the fourth pillar of international maritime law, alongside the three IMO Conventions dealing with safety of life at sea; standards of training, certification and watchkeeping for seafarers; and prevention of pollution from ships (SOLAS, STCW and MARPOL). The IMO also encourages ratification of the MLC, 2006, by its member States. Furthermore, the ILO is working together with the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) in respect of the implementation of the Seafarers' Identity Documents Convention (Revised), 2003 (No. 185), which provides that seafarers' identity documents must be in line with certain specifications established by the ICAO.

135. Within the United Nations Development Group (UNDG), the Office continued to be active in the UNDG Human Rights Mainstreaming Mechanism (UNDG–HRM) and is now represented on the Resource Management Committee, which has approved proposals to create positions for a number of human rights advisers at the country and regional levels. The ILO is also active in the messaging of the HRM, including in the context of the post-2015 development agenda, to ensure that decent work is included as a human right and that the ILO's fundamental Conventions and supervisory bodies are clearly referred to as part of the UN human rights framework.

B. Council of Europe

European Code of Social Security and its Protocol

136. NORMES continues to work with the competent services of the Council of Europe regarding the monitoring of the application of the European Code of Social Security and its Protocol. In the light of the monitoring procedure established by the Code and the arrangements concluded between the Council of Europe and the ILO, each year the Committee of Experts examines the reports submitted on the application of the Code and its Protocol by the States parties thereto. <sup>21</sup>

European Social Charter

137. In accordance with Article 26 of the European Social Charter, the ILO participates in an advisory capacity in the sessions of the European Committee of Social Rights responsible for supervising the application of the Charter and the revised Charter. In particular, an exchange of views with the European Committee took place at its 266th Session in September 2013 in Strasbourg (France) on the topic concerning the right to social security and social protection in the current context of economic crisis and austerity measures in Europe.

Part II. List of ratifications by Convention and Protocol

* Conventions which were withdrawn by the International Labour Conference in June 2000 and Conventions which will never enter into force because of the adoption and entry into force of revising Conventions are not included in the list. The total number of ratifications for each Convention includes all ratifications registered since the adoption of the Convention concerned, regardless of any subsequent denunciation.

Part III. Country profiles

The following country profiles provide information on the ratification and application of Conventions and on the submission of instruments adopted by the Conference to the competent authorities in a table format by country.

The ratifications section indicates which fundamental Conventions, governance Conventions, and other Conventions a country has ratified as of 31 December 2012. It does not list Conventions which have been denounced or which are not in force.

The section on reports requested indicates how many reports were requested from the country in 2012 and how many were received. Under articles 22 and 35 of the ILO Constitution, member States are required to submit reports at regular intervals on the application of Conventions which they have ratified or declared applicable to their non-metropolitan territories. If a report requested was a first detailed report (which is required in the case of a newly ratified Convention), the number of the Convention appears in parentheses.

A new section has been included as of 2009 on cases discussed before the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards since 1985, as well as on cases active before the Committee on Freedom of Association. The list does not include comments made by the Committee in previous sessions for which action by governments is still requested.

The section on submissions indicates the sessions of the ILC of which adopted instruments have, or have not, been submitted by governments to the authority or authorities competent to consider further action, as required under article 19 of the Constitution. In 1947, at its 103rd Session, the Governing Body of the ILO decided that, as from the coming into force of the constitutional amendment of 1946, the mandate of the Committee of Experts would be extended to matters related to the constitutional obligation of submission to competent authorities under article 19 of the ILO Constitution. The Committee of Experts started monitoring compliance with this constitutional provision as of 1948, with the instruments adopted by the ILC at its 31st Session. The number of the Conventions, Recommendations or Protocols is given in parentheses, preceded by the letter "C", "R", or "P" as the case may be, when only some of the texts adopted at any one session have been submitted. When the ratification of a Convention was registered, that Convention and the corresponding Recommendation are considered as submitted.
