

You are cordially invited to the second RDW conference

Regulating for Decent Work: Regulating for a Fair Recovery (6-8 July 2011, ILO, Geneva)

*For registration or information, please contact rdw@ilo.org, or visit <http://www.ilo.org/travail>

Day 1 (6 July 2011), Wednesday			Venue
09.00-09.30	Opening ceremony	A. Diop (ILO), J. Rubery (Manchester), J. Howe (Melbourne)	IX
09.30-11.00	Plenary I	Decent working conditions -- regulation's dispensable ideal?	IX
	M. Freedland (Oxford U.)	"Regulating for decent work and the legal construction of the personal work relation"
	A. Marshall (CNIC, Argentina)	"Labour regulation patterns and protection deficits: Latin American cases"
11.30-13.00	Parallel 1	New challenges in labour regulation research	VII
		Multidisciplinary perspectives on institutions	VI
		Linking State and non-State actors in enforcement	IV
		The legal regulation of time, money and family life: findings of a global comparative project (I)	III
14.00-15.30	Parallel 2	Work-life balance and the global care economy: regulatory potentials and actual outcomes	VII
		Does the wage share matter?	VI
		Capturing the gains: Economic and social upgrading in global production networks	IV
		The legal regulation of time, money and family life: findings of a global comparative project (II)	III
16.00-17.30	Parallel 3	Social protection and economic development in East Asia: a new comparative approach	IX
		Economic crisis, policy responses and consequences: critical evaluations	VII
		Minimum wages, social dialogue and pay equity effects in Europe	VI
		Economic influences on enforcement and compliance	IV
		Regulating temporary employment agencies in the new world of work	III
17.30-19.00	Welcome reception	Hosted by ILO	R2
	Book launch	S. Lee and D. McCann eds, Regulating for Decent Work: New directions in labour regulation Introduced by G. Mundlak (U. Tel Aviv)
Day 2 (7 July 2011), Thursday
09.00-10.30	Plenary II	Fairness at the workplace after the crisis	IX
	S. Einarsen (U. Bergen)	"Workplace bullying: the case for regulation"
	K. Lippel (U. Ottawa)	"Regulatory action against bullying and harassment in the workplace in an international perspective"
11.00-12.30	Parallel 4	Equality challenged	IX
		Regulating for migrant workers: stories of success and failure	VII
		Low-paid workers: Who are they? What policies are working? (I)	VI
		Considering alternative modes of regulation	IV
		The economic crisis and labour markets: channels of contagion and automatic stabilisers	III
12.30-13.30	Book launch	S. Hayter ed. The Role of Collective Bargaining in the Global Economy Introduced by G. Bosch (U. Duisburg)	R2
13.30-15.00	Parallel 5	Voice in times of crisis	IX
		Securing decent working conditions in precarious work: the case of service sector workers	VII
		Low-paid workers: Who are they? What policies are working? (II)	VI
		Enforcement and sanctions	IV
		Worker organisations and labour regulation	III
15.30-17.00	Parallel 6	Legal responses at the workplace	IX
		The growing role of labour standards: international and national perspectives	VII
		Wage inequality in emerging markets: trends and impacts	VI
		Empirical analyses of regulation in action: Australia, India (Punjab) and Italy	IV
		Effective regulatory frameworks: lessons from new regulatory challenges	III
17.00-18.30	Plenary III	Enforcing Decent Work	IX
	D. Weil (Boston U.)	"Fissured employment: impacts and implications for creating decent workplaces"
	C. Zhou (Nanjing U.)	"Increasing wages without collective bargaining? Experience from China"
18.30-20.00	Conference reception	Hosted by University of Manchester (Fairness at Work Group)	R2
Day 3 (8 July 2011), Friday
09.00-10.30	Parallel 7	Regulating for Decent Work: What role for charters of rights?	IX
		Working conditions and economic development: law, reality and innovation	VII
		New perspectives on wages and economic growth (I)	VI
		Regulating for decent work in India and Iran	IV
		Job stability, non-regular employment, and wage discrimination	III
11.00-12.30	Parallel 8	Wages worldwide: results and measurement issues from the multi-country WageIndicator web-survey	IX
		Do regulation and institutions matter?	VII
		New perspectives on wages and economic growth (II)	VI
		Regulating for decent work in the informal economy	IV
		Developing new forms of labour regulation	III
12.30-14.00	Special forum	Lance Taylor (New School), The Collapse of Free Market Macroeconomics Discussant: P. Flaschel (Bielefeld U.); Moderator: S. Pursey (ILO)	VII
14.00-15.30	Parallel 9	Panel discussion: "Wages, income inequality, and growth"	IX
		R. van der Hoeven (ISS, moderator), S. Cook (UNRISD), A. Calcagno (UNCTAD), TBA (ILO), E. Ernst (IILS)
		The impact of labour regulation in developing economies	IV
16.00-17.30	Plenary IV	Wages, inequality and economic growth	IX
	J. Ghosh (Nahru U.) [TBC]	"The potential for employment and wage led growth in developing countries"
	M. Reich (UC Berkeley)	"Do frictions matter in the labour market?: accessions, separations and minimum wages"
17.30-18.00	Closing Ceremony		IX
	RDW prize (U. Melbourne)		